Directions from downtown Charlotte:

- Take Freedom Drive (which is actually NC HWY 27) and head west.
- Crosses I-85 and becomes two lane road.
- Go through Paw Creek (Tank Town)
- Cross Catawba River and come into and go through Mt. Holly.
- Go through Stanley. Stanley has three traffic lights. First one has Burger King on right. Last (third) light is out from town and there is an abandoned used car lot on the right. Stay straight on 27.
- 2 1/2 miles from this light you will come to another traffic light at a cross road. Before the intersection you pass a Volunteer Fire Dept on left. There are several other junkie looking buildings on both sides of 27. On the right hand is a post office and a Phillips 66 country store called 'Country Corner' ' This is Alexis. Stay on 27 through this light. 6/10ths of a mile past this light you will see the county line sign on the left hand side of 27 that says: LEAVING GASTON CO./ENTERING LINCOLN CO. Just past this sign there will be two paved drives on the opposite (right) side of 27 from the county sign. The second is 'Al Hager' lane and there is a big sign for TRI-COUNTY ANIMAL RESCUE. Turn right off 27 on to Al Hager. We are right behind the small gray house.
